Project Title: Exploring Inclusive Design through Ethical Debate

Researcher: Kuljeet Sibia

Course: PgCert Academic Practice in Art, Design and Communication, UAL

You are invited to take part in a small-scale research project exploring how ethically led debates and lived-experience discussions can support architecture students in developing a more conscious awareness of inclusive design.

Please read the attached Participant Information Sheet in full, and if anything is unclear or you would like more information, feel free to ask before signing this consent form.

Consent statements

Please read the statements below and sign to confirm your consent.

- I have read and understood the information sheet for this research project.
- I have had the opportunity to ask questions and am satisfied with the answers.
- I understand that taking part is voluntary, and that choosing not to take part (or to withdraw later) will not affect my studies, teaching, or assessment in any way.
- I understand that I may withdraw at any time during the study, without giving a reason.
- I understand that my responses will be treated confidentially and that my identity will not be revealed in any report, presentation, or publication.
- I understand that anonymised quotes or reflections I share may be used in academic outputs (e.g. PgCert report, UAL blogs, or presentations).
- I agree for the focus group to be audio recorded for note-taking purposes only and understand that recordings will be securely deleted after transcription and analysis.
- I hereby fully and freely consent to participation in the study
